Ecological Site/Plant Association and Vegetation (OR)

Hood River County Area, Oregon

| Map symboland soil name | Ecological site or plant association | Common trees | Forest understory or rangeland characteristic vegetation | Composition |       |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------|--|-------------|-------|
|                             |                                      |              |  | Forest      | Range |
| 0.5                         | •                                    | •            | 1  | F           | Pct   |
| 6F:Culbertson           |                                      | Douglas-fir  | bigleaf maple  |             |       |
|                             |                           | ů            | blue wildrye   |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | common snowberry   |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | deerbrush ceanothus                                      |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | mountain brome   |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | Pacific dogwood  |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | spreading dogbane  |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | tall Oregongrape   |             |       |
|                             |                                      |              | trailing blackberry                                      |             |       |

