Ecological Site/Plant Association and Vegetation (OR)

Lane County Area, Oregon

| Map symboland soil name       | Ecological site or plant association | Common trees     | Forest understory or rangeland characteristic vegetation | Composition |       |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------|--|-------------|-------|
|                                   |                                      |                  |  | Forest      | Range |
|                                   | •                                    |                  |  | ŀ           | Pct   |
| 2754E:  Jory, sedimentary bedrock |                                      | bigleaf maple    |  |             |       |
|                                   |                           | Douglas-fir      |  |             |       |
|                                   |                                      | grand fir        |  |             |       |
|                                   |                                      | Oregon white oak |  |             |       |

